

ProvoREADS 2019-20

Month	Theme/Title	Books that Include Nonfiction & Fiction Related	Focused Library Sections
October	“Reading Opens Windows to Exploration”	Solar system, space travel/exploration, future technology, sci-fi and what’s inside ourselves, friendships	200, 500, 700, 900
November-December	“Reading Opens Windows to Our Neighbors”	Cultures, food, dance, clothes, families, friends, traditions, languages	200, 400, 600, 900
January	“Reading Opens Windows to Heroes Past and Present”	Heroes from the past and present. Mythology, explorers, common and uncommon. Kindness, fictional heroes, biographies	200, 300, 900,
February	“Reading Opens Windows to Our Creative Side” World Read-a-Loud Day, Feb.1st	Art, poetry, music, dance, cooking, photography, sports, writing, performing arts, crafting	600, 700, 800
March	“Reading Opens Windows to the Lighter Side of Life”	Humor, Graphic Novels, poetry, fun facts, and kindness	000, 700, 800 GN
April	“Reading Opens Windows to Our Back Yard”	Earth, land formations, plants, animals, ocean, dinosaurs, natural disasters, life cycles, natural habitat	500, 600
May	“May the 4th be With You” Galactic Reading Day	Fun day reading with the students with Star Wars theme.

Themes will be introduced each month starting in October. Each theme can be interpreted in multiple visions of the themes. The Books will be introduced from nonfiction selections partnered with fiction companion books. Prizes will be awarded to students from monthly drawings with books provided by the district.