Dear Superintendent Rittel and Board President Pettersson:

The Utah State Board of Education recognizes a Title I elementary school in Provo School District for excellence in the achievement of their students learning English. Eight other elementary schools in five LEAs in the state are receiving the same recognition.

The criteria for a recognized Utah Exemplary School are:

- Enrollment over 400
- 80-100% Economically Disadvantaged students
- 40-50% Students Learning English
- 40-60% Students have achieved her/his individual annual growth goal
- 10% or more have achieved English proficiency

Utah Exemplary School for Provo School District is:

- Spring Creek Elementary: Principal Jill Franklin, Faculty and Staff

This school will be highlighted on the USBE website and in my Board messages as well as receive a framed Certificate of Achievement.

Sincerely,

Sydnee Dickson, Ed.D.
State Superintendent of Public Instruction
