

Provo City School District Policy Series 1000: Board of Education

Policy 1110 F1

Application for Student Officers on the School Board

The Provo City School District Board of Education values the input of all stakeholders as the Board considers decisions that impact students and student learning. An important voice among the stakeholders are the students themselves. After having studied and listened to presentations from secondary school students in the district, the Board has decided to include student representatives on the Board.

There are three main purposes for including students on the Board:

1. To invite student perspectives on matters the board is discussing
2. To encourage more of a liaison function between students throughout the district and the board
3. To actively promote and facilitate democratic governance practices in the lives of student representatives.
