- Videos about holidays/other topics. Maybe teachers can send out a weekly reminder about BrainPOP/possible example of a program feature
- Clint check into delineating logins- how many actual students are using the resource
- Appropriate Expenditures for eSchool Community Council: Expenditure expectations- Clint Smith: All expenditures are tied to the goals the council sets- programs, software, admissions to field trips, etc.
  - BrainPOP is $4000-$4500- our digital literacy source:
Vote- Clint Motion to maintain BrainPOP and i-Ready,
Maria 2nd, 4-0 vote in the affirmative to purchase both programs
  - I-Ready is around $2500- our diagnostic for Math and Reading- interventions for struggling students
  - All expenditure will be discussed throughout our meetings and approved by a majority of the council:
IXL- look into this as a resource?? Provided or need to pay for it? Assign each member to look through the IXL website and report back to Clint by next Wednesday

3. Romney leads a discussion on art contest ideas for eSchool: run the contest and have teachers and community council judge the contest, or college students; local community feel; not AI-generated, open topics; genres (pencil drawing, watercolor, photography, or just medium of choice). Direction- generic theme, use whatever medium- all entries get feedback from an art student- next year. Poetry, music, art professors- use them as community service for the kids in eSchool.
4. Goals discussion: Math topic of greatest need:

E. Action Items/Calendar Items:

1. Each member explore IXL and report back to Clint by Wednesday about their thoughts on the program
2. Speak with neighbors, professors about the contest next year.
3. 50% Acadience Math Meet or Exceed; RISE is 25% meet or exceed; Think about a goal for math, and how we can increase participation. Discuss and finalize goal next meeting

F. Adjournment: Clint motion to adjourn, Romney 2nd, 5-0 vote in the affirmative
